

Ariana Lum

Hi, I'm Ariana - a Hawaii-born graphic designer, I've spent over 10 years creating digital marketing designs for major e-commerce brands, and now I'm following my passion for storytelling and illustration.

Lisbon became the place where I finally poured myself into my art full-time and was inspired to tell this story, A World Within, a world of whimsy, mindfulness, healing, and imagination.

“I write and illustrate stories that help children heal, connect with their inner world, and learn gentle tools for handling big emotions, and life’s difficult moments. Things we aren’t often taught in school but deeply need as we grow.”

A World Within

Helps children understand grief through accessible storytelling and imaginative visuals. Highlighting emotional resilience and hope, the book equips young readers with tools for processing loss. Its unique artistic style sets it apart in modern children's literature.
